Shipping Delay – Neutral Status Check	4700	37%	Neutral / Mildly Anxious	Polite; includes order #. Easy to automate with tracking macro + reassurance.	Shipping Delay, Neutral Status Check WISMO Workflow 1. Check the customer's orders. 1. If no order found, ask for the order ID and check again. 2. Give the current status update. 1. If unfulfilled, say it has not shipped yet. 2. If fulfilled and in transit, say it is on the way. 3. If delivered, say it is marked delivered. 3. If it is still in transit, set the wait promise based on contact day. 1. Customer contacts Mon to Wed: ask them to wait until Friday. If not delivered by then, offer a free resend. 2. Customer contacts Thu to Sun: ask them to wait until early next week. If not delivered by then, offer a free resend. 4. If customer asks for tracking, share the tracking link. 5. If they reply after the promised date and it is still not delivered, escalate the ticket to let the human agent can process resend.	"Order #43189 shows 'in transit' for 10 days. Any update?" "Hi, just curious when my BuzzPatch will arrive to Toronto." "Can you confirm the estimated delivery date? Thanks!"
Wrong / Missing Item in Parcel	900	7%	Negative → Frustrated	Needs apology, photo request, and re-shipment. Offer freebie for high LTV.	Wrong or Missing Item in Parcel Process 1. Check the customer's order, items purchased, and what was fulfilled. 2. Ask what happened so you can pick the right fix. 1. Missing item 2. Wrong item received 3. Request photos to confirm and speed things up. 1. To get this sorted fast, could you send a photo of the items you received? 2. If there is a packing slip, ask for a photo of that too. 3. If possible, ask for a photo of the outside shipping label on the box. 4. Offer the fastest resolution first. 1. Offer a free reship of the missing item or the correct item. 2. If they asked for a refund, explain you can resend it immediately, and it's usually faster than a refund. 5. If they do not want a reship, offer store credit first. 1. Offer store credit for the item value, plus a small bonus if your policy allows, for example 10%. 2. If they accept, issue the store credit and tag: "Wrong or Missing, Store Credit Issued". 6. If they decline store credit, refund in cash. 1. Refund to the original payment method. 2. Tag: "Wrong or Missing, Cash Refund Issued". 7. Close the loop. 1. If reship, escalate the ticket to support, so the support members can resend the order. 2. If store credit, confirm the credit amount and that it is available immediately at checkout. 3. If cash refund, confirm the amount and the expected processing time.	"Got Zen stickers instead of Focus—kids need them for school, help!" "My package arrived with only 2 of the 3 packs I paid for." "Received the pet collar but the tick stickers are missing."
Product Issue – "No Effect"	700	6%	Disappointed	Empathy + usage advice. Refund or upgrade option.	Product Issue Process: No Effect 1. Check the customer's order, product, and status. 2. Ask why it felt like "no effect" so you don't apply the wrong fix. 1. Ask the goal: falling asleep, staying asleep, stress, or something else. 2. Ask usage: how many, what time, and for how many nights. 3. Route based on what you learn. 1. If usage is off (too late, inconsistent, too short duration), share the correct usage and ask them to try for 3 nights. 2. If the product is a mismatch for their goal, offer a better fit product switch. 4. If the customer is still disappointed after guidance: 1. Offer store credit with a 10% bonus instead of cash refund. 2. If they accept, issue credit and tag: "No Effect – Recovered". 3. If they decline, refund in cash to the original payment method and tag: "No Effect – Cash Refund".	"Kids still getting bitten even with 2 stickers on." "Focus patches aren't helping my son concentrate." "Itch relief patch did nothing for the sting."
Refund Request – Standard	1100	9%	Negative but Polite	Linked to shipping/product issues. Refund flow.	Refund Request Standard Process 1. Check the customer's order details and status. 2. Ask for the reason for the refund request. 1. If the reason is product didn't meet expectations : 1. Ask one quick follow up to identify the cause: falling asleep, staying asleep, comfort, taste, or no effect etc. 2. Share the correct usage tip based on the cause. 3. Offer a better fit swap option. 4. If the customer still wants a refund, offer store credit with a 10% bonus instead of cash refund. 5. If accepted, issue store credit and log the outcome with a tag. 2. If the reason is shipping delay : 1. If the customer contacts you on Monday or Tuesday, ask if they are okay waiting until Friday. If it is not delivered by then, offer a free replacement. 2. If the customer contacts you on Wednesday through Friday, ask if they are okay waiting until early next week. If it is not delivered by then, offer a free replacement. 3. If the customer refuses to wait, offer a free replacement immediately, then escalate the ticket so we can review. Tell customers this: "Hey, I'm looping Monica, who is our Head of CS, she'll take it from there." 3. If the reason is damaged or wrong item : 1. Offer a free replacement or store credit. 2. If the customer chooses replacement, escalate the ticket so we can review. 3. If the customer chooses store credit, issue credit with a small bonus if allowed. 4. If the reason is changed mind : 1. If unfulfilled, cancel the order and log the action by adding tags. 2. If fulfilled, offer store credit with a small bonus before processing a cash refund.	"Please refund order #51234; product arrived too late." "Want my money back—stickers don't repel mosquitoes as promised." "Returning unused packs for a full refund, thanks."
